Global Awareness (G) Assessment

1 CRITERIA	2 ADVANCED	3 PROFICIENT	4 BASIC	5 UNSATISFACTORY
Students demonstrate an ability to compare and contrast the unique characteristics of world cultures and the universality of human experience through examinations of traditions, social organizations, and ways of life. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Interprets the information gathered in accurate and comprehensive ways. Provides a highly creative and unique synthesis of the information. #of Students _____	Accurately interprets information gathered and concisely synthesizes it. #of Students _____	Makes significant errors in interpreting the information gathered or synthesizes the information imprecisely or awkwardly. #of Students _____	Misinterprets the information gathered and fails to synthesize it. #of Students _____
Students understand the interconnectedness of global and local concerns. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Presents a thorough and comprehensive understanding of the interconnectedness of global and local concerns. Understands misconceptions or confusions that are commonly overlooked. #of Students _____	Presents an accurate understanding of the interconnectedness of global and local concerns. Considers misconceptions or confusions that are commonly overlooked. #of Students _____	Presents a partially accurate understanding of the interconnectedness of global and local concerns. Considers only some misconceptions or confusions. #of Students _____	Fails accurately to understand the interconnectedness of global and local concerns. Fails to consider misconceptions or confusions #of Students _____
Students recognize and interpret the aesthetic traditions and artistic representations that emanate from a culture located outside the U.S. Assessment method (assignment/task assessed)	Recognizes and interprets the aesthetic traditions and artistic information gathered in accurate and comprehensive ways. Provides a highly creative and unique synthesis of the information #of Students _____	Accurately interprets information gathered and concisely synthesizes it. #of Students _____	Makes some errors in interpreting the information gathered or synthesizes the information imprecisely or awkwardly. #of Students _____	Misinterprets the information gathered and fails to synthesize it. #of Students ___